II. Expanded Maternity Leave Act

The Department of Labor and employment formally launched the implementing rules and regulations for the Expanded Maternity Leave law. Unknown to many, the new law is not just about extending the days for maternity leave. Our speaker will discuss important new features and share applicable situations, claiming of benefits and how families and companies will be affected by the governing policies.

III. Sexual Harassment in the Workplace

One of the most controversial workplace problems is sexual harassment. Congress affirms to have a bill seeking to impose stiffer penalties on people committing sexual harassment in the workplace. The talk will tackle preventive measures and legalities to follow once it happens. Our speaker will discuss how HR practitioners can handle these cases in a legal and professional manner.

IV. End of Contractualization

The bill seeking to end abusive forms of contractualization has been finally passed and is now in the executive department for signing. Our voluntary labor arbitrator will discuss the rationale behind the bill and how this can affect current work arrangements. Our speaker will provide guidelines that can help employers adapt and comply with the law. Salient points of HB 6908/SB 1826 will be discussed which would hopefully assuage the concerns expressed the employers and third-party service providers.
